

A Message from Pastor Eric

Dear Calvary Family,

I'm getting so excited about what God is going to do in us and through us this spring. We promise that this Easter will be the perfect opportunity to invite someone you care about to hear the message of the good news of Jesus. He truly has taken us from death to life and we have so much hope to share as we all participate to Reach One for Jesus.

There are always so many opportunities in the Quarterly for you, but I also encourage you to make sure you are focused in on the core things of being part of the Worship Service, joining a LifeGroup and finding a place to serve. So don't be overwhelmed and don't try to do everything, but allow this to be a guide to help you connect and grow so we accomplish God's Great Calling on our lives to reach out with the gospel message and see lives transformed.

May the Lord bless you and keep you,

Eric Wakeling
Senior Pastor
